Our 2024 Mission Daytona Bike Week Give-away is complete...Hallelujah! Just think:

- Weeks of prayer over this event from thousands of people in hundreds of churches.
- 9 days of intentional gospel-laced testimonies shared with over 1300 people.
- Over 240 volunteers from over 50 different churches throughout the US.
- Approximately 1500 bibles, gospel tracks, and other literature distributed.
- 7 wonderful nights of worship, fellowship, shared meals, and challenging messages
- 157 people willing to trade their lives for the one Jesus offers!

I can't thank you, your church, and all our prayer partners enough for your willingness to sacrifice time, money, and energy to share your great love for Jesus with those we encountered at Daytona Bike Week!

Now that the harvest has been gathered, we'll focus on follow-up with those who gave us permission to do so. Nationally, F.A.I.T.H. Riders will seek help for those who made salvation decisions find a church home and begin growing as believers. Those of you who helped lead people to our Lord have a personal responsibility to do the same. As you shared your testimony you gave everyone the opportunity to indicate whether you could touch base with them or not (circled "yes" on their registration form). Please contact all who made decisions to follow Jesus and help them begin their Christian walk. For those who did not make decisions, but with whom you made a connection and gave you permission, please reach out to them as well.

As I close, remember how our Lord used you and us to "make Jesus known." Your church needs to hear how God employed you and this ministry to further His kingdom. Please share details of your service in Daytona with your pastor, staff, and peers. Others will be encouraged and perhaps challenged by your obedience to share the gospel! God was glorified in Daytona and He used First Baptist Daytona, F.A.I.T.H. Riders, your church, and you to do it. I'll be praying for your success as you help new believers begin their walk. Thank you again for your service and sacrifice! Thank you, Lord, for blessing our obedience!
